

CAFRAD/IDRC LOG-IN Africa

Pre-Project Workshop

LOG-IN Africa

Local Governance and ICTs

Research Network for Africa

Presentation of CAFRAD

by

Soussi Takati Zoubir

Nairobi, 3-5 September 2005

The African Training and Research Centre in Administration for Development (CAF RAD) is a Pan African intergovernmental organisation, established in 1964 by African governments, with the support of UNESCO; making it the first uniquely Pan-African training and research centre in the continent for the improvement of public administration and governance systems in Africa.

Membership is open to all African countries: at present, CAF RAD has a membership of 37 States.

Organisation: Statutory Bodies

- The Governing Board
- The Executive Committee
- The Director General
- The Scientific Council

CAFRAD designs, organises and manages, in collaboration with member States, regional and international partners, training programmes and activities, such as:

- ✓ Fora;
- ✓ Conferences;
- ✓ Seminars;
- ✓ Workshops;
- ✓ Courses;
- ✓ Meetings;
- ✓ e-Learning programmes.

Since its creation, CAFRAD undertook about 220 training activities in the areas of its competence.

Within the framework of the Pan African Programme on Public Administration and Governance, approved by African Ministers in charge of Civil Service and placed under the banner of NEPAD, CAFRAD has been assigned to take lead in three important areas, namely:

1. Public Sector Leadership Capacity Development for good governance in Africa;
2. e-governance (e-Africa Initiative for good governance: building e-governance capacity in African countries);
3. Knowledge and Policy Exchange.

In addition to this, CAFRAD is to contribute to the data collection and knowledge sharing, and the Innovation and partnership support.

Contact

cafrad@cafrad.org

www.cafrad.org

www.cafrad.org