List of handouts and reference documents

   www.worldbank.org/viewpoint/

   Policies, APC ICT policy monitor Project African Country research papers
   http://africa.rights.apc.org

3. Education extract from An Information Policy Handbook for Southern Africa http://network.idrc.ca/ev.php?URL_ID=11402&URL_DO=DO_TOPIC&URL_SECTION=201
   &reload=1054711079

   Meeting on “Information and Communication Technologies and their impact on and use as an instrument for the advancement and empowerment of women” Seoul, Republic of Korea, 11-14
   November 2002

5. Havard School of Public Health, report on a Colloquium on Sustainability and Access to health Information: critical Assessment of Practical uses of IT in the Developing World, report dated May 31, 2000, Cambridge, MA.

   food security: Lessons from field experiences in developing countries
   http://www.fao.org/sd/CDdirect/CDre0055b.htm

   http://www.fao.org/sd/CDdirect/CDre0055h.htm

8. Gurstein, M. E-commerce and community economic development: Enemy or ally?
   http://www.fao.org/sd/CDdirect/CDre0055i.htm

9. By Choice or by Chance: How the Internet Is Used to Prepare for, Manage, and Share
   Information about Emergencies by Laurie Putnam First Monday, volume 7, number 11

    UNCTAD/SDTE/ECB/2(SUM)

11. Hoekman, A. E-governance and the promotion of transparency in governance, presentation to regional workshop on building e-governance capacity in Africa, South Africa October 2002.
    http://www.unpan.org/conf_cafrafefrica02.asp

12. ICT4Dev case studies (DFID and partners)

13. Cecchini and Shah, “Information and Communications Technology As a Tool for Empowerment” World Bank Empowerment Sourcebook.
Useful websites

http://www.big-world.org/links/69.asp
http://www.eldis.org/ict/index.htm
http://www.uneca.org/disd/ict/
http://www.ict-4d.org
http://www.africanconnection.org/
http://www.africaconnection.org/
http://www.itu.int/wsis/
http://www.developmentgateway.org/node/130667/
http://www.unicttaskforce.org
http://www.unpan.org