

A/RES/246 (III). International facilities for the promotion of training in public administration

The General Assembly,

Recognizing the need for international facilities which will provide adequate administrative training for an increasing number of candidates of proved ability recruited on a wide geographical basis, but mainly from the countries in greatest need of access to the principles, procedures and methods of modern administration,

Resolves that

1. An International Centre for Training in Public Administration shall be established under the direction of the United Nations;
2. The Secretary-General shall report detailed arrangements for such a centre to the Economic and Social Council for consideration;
3. The Secretary-General shall include in his budget estimates for the financial year 1950 a programme implementing the objectives of the present resolution.

*Hundred and seventy-first plenary meeting
4 December 1948*