

A/RES/518 (VI). Technical assistance activities under General Assembly resolutions 200 (III), 246 (III) and 418 (V)

The General Assembly,

Having decided in resolutions 305 (IV) and 316 (IV) that the regular budget of the United Nations should continue to provide for the activities authorized by resolutions 200 (III) and 58 (I),

1. Directs the Secretary-General to place on a continuing basis the programme of technical assistance in public administration authorized by resolution 246 (III) and to include an amount for these services in the United Nations budget in the future;
2. Notes with approval that the Secretary-General has included in the United Nations budget¹ for the year 1952 the same amounts as were appropriated by the General Assembly in 1951 for activities under resolutions 200 (III), 246 (III) and 418 (V); and
3. Recommends that additional technical assistance activities to be undertaken for the benefit of underdeveloped countries in the fields of economic development, public administration and social welfare should be considered under the expanded programme of technical assistance in cases where such additional programmes cannot be financed from the budget of the United Nations.

*360th plenary meeting,
12 January 1952.*
