

DECREE N 154

On the ground on Art. 98, p. 4 of the Constitution of Republic of Bulgaria

Order:

To be promulgated in the State Gazette the Law on the Protection of Competition, passed on by the XXXVIII General Assembly on 29 April 1998.

Issued in Sofia on 23 November 1998.

President of the Republic of Bulgaria:

Peter STOYANOV

LAW ON THE PROTECTION OF COMPETITION

(Published in State Gazette, issue 52, 1998)

Title One

GENERAL PART

Chapter One

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Subject Matter

Art. 1. (1) This law is aimed at ensuring the protection and conditions for the promotion of competition and of free initiative in the economic activities.

(2) For the purposes of subsection 1 the law shall govern the protection against agreements, decisions and concerted practices, abuse of monopolistic and dominant position in the market, concentration of economic activities, unfair competition and other acts which might result in the prevention, restriction or distortion of competition.

Scope of application

Art. 2. (1) This law shall apply to:

1. all undertakings which carry on their activities within or without the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria, if they expressly or tacitly prevent, restrict, distort or might prevent, restrict or distort the competition in the country;
2. the authorities of the Executive and of local self-government, if they expressly or tacitly prevent, restrict, distort or might prevent, restrict or distort the competition in the country;
3. undertakings to which the State has assigned the provision of services of public interest, to the extent where the observance of the law does not render the fulfilment of those tasks impossible and the competition in the country is not affected to a significant extent;
4. natural persons who contribute to the creation of dominant position or to the practising of unfair competition.

(2) This law shall not apply to:

1. the relations governed by the legislation relating to the protection of industrial property, copyright and related rights, to the extent where they are not used to restrict or distort competition;
2. operations, the consequences of which restrict or might restrict the competition in another State, unless otherwise provided in an international treaty which has entered into force and to which the Republic of Bulgaria is a party.

Chapter Two

7. execute the budget;
8. inform the public about the Commission' s activities, via the media;

(2) While performing his functions, the chairman shall be assisted by the deputy chairmen. He shall nominate the deputy chairman of the Commission who shall replace him in his absence.

Title Two

RESTRICTION OF COMPETITION

Chapter Three

PROHIBITED AGREEMENTS, DECISIONS AND CONCERTED PRACTICES

General prohibition

Art. 9. (1) Shall be prohibited any type of agreements between undertakings, decisions of connected or associated undertakings, as well as concerted practices of two or more undertakings which have as their object or effect the prevention, restriction or distortion of competition in the relevant market, such as:

1. direct or indirect fixing of prices or other trading conditions;
2. sharing of markets or sources of supply;
3. limitation or control of the production, trade, technical development or investments;
4. application of dissimilar conditions to the same type of contracts in respect of certain parties, thereby placing them at a competitive disadvantage;
5. making the conclusion of contracts subject to acceptance by the other party of supplementary obligations or to the conclusion of supplementary contracts which, by their nature or according to commercial usage, are not connected with the subject of the main contract or with its performance.

(2) The agreements and decisions under subsection 1 above shall be void. Their nullity may be invoked by any authority or person concerned even if it is not declared in accordance with §7, item 6.

Agreements with insignificant effect

Art. 10. (1) The prohibition under §9, subsection 1 shall not apply to agreements, decisions or concerted practices which have an insignificant effect on competition.

(2) The effect shall be insignificant where the aggregate share of the undertakings participating in the market for the goods or services, which form the subject of the agreement, decision or concerted practice, does not exceed five per cent of the relevant market.

Obligation to notify

Art. 11. (1) The undertakings shall be obliged to notify the Commission of the existence of agreements, decisions or concerted practices under §9, subsection 1 within thirty days after the day on which they are concluded, adopted or applied.

(2) The notification under subsection 1 should contain data about:

1. the participating undertakings;
2. the legal form of the agreement or decision, or the type of concerted practice;
3. the general share of the participating undertakings in the relevant market.

(3) The notification under subsection 1 may also contain a request for exemption from the prohibition in accordance with §13.

Appraisal of agreements, decisions or concerted practices

Art. 12. Within two months after the receipt of a notification, the Commission shall issue a decision whereby it shall declare:

1. that no ground exists for the application of the prohibition under §9;
2. a prohibition of the agreement, decision or concerted practice.

Exemption from prohibition

Art. 13. (1) With the authorization of the Commission may be exempted from the prohibition under §9, subsection 1 agreements, decisions or concerted practices, which contribute to increasing or improving the production of goods and the provision of services, to the technical or economic development or to increasing the competitiveness on external markets, while allowing consumers a fair share of the resulting benefits, and provided that:

1. they do not impose on the undertakings concerned restrictions which are not indispensable to the attainment of these objectives;
2. afford a possibility of eliminating competition in respect of a substantial part of the relevant market.

(2) The Commission may exempt from the prohibition under § 9 agreements, decisions and concerted practices of small and medium-sized enterprises, where they lead to enhancing their competitiveness.

(3) The authorizations under subsection 1 shall be issued within two months after the submission of the request under §11, subsection 3. The authorizations may contain certain conditions with which the undertakings shall be bound to comply.

(4) The Commission shall exercise control for the observance of the conditions under subsection 3. It may reverse or modify the authorization given, as well as prohibit the agreement, decision or concerted practice, where:

1. a change occurs in a fact which has been of material importance when the authorization was given;
2. the participating undertakings infringe a condition contained in the authorization;
3. it is established that the authorization is based on untrue data and facts provided by the undertaking.

(5) Where during the study data are established which indicate that the agreement, decision or concerted practice, for which an exemption is sought, seriously affects or might affect the interests of the trading parties or consumers, the Commission may order by a decision an immediate termination or modification of the agreement, decision or concerted practice. That decision shall not be subject to appeal.

Group exemption from prohibition

Art. 14. (1) The Commission may adopt a decision that the prohibition under §9, subsection 1 shall not apply to a certain type of contracts where they satisfy the requirements under §13, subsection 1.

(2) The decision under subsection 1 shall come into effect after it is published in the State Gazette.

(3) In its decision for a group exemption from the prohibition under §9, subsection 1 the Commission shall determine the conditions which the contracts may contain and those conditions the application of which is inadmissible.

(4) The decision under subsection 1 above may provide that the prohibition under §9, subsection 1 shall not apply to contracts concluded prior to its entry into force, where within 3 months they are brought in conformity with the requirements of the Commission and where the latter is forthwith notified of the modifications made.

Unification of general conditions

Art. 15. (1) Undertakings which offer the conclusion of the same type of contracts in accordance with general conditions, may unify those general conditions in advance where they do not restrict the free negotiation of prices and do not affect the interests of consumers.

(2) The unification of general conditions shall only be allowed with the authorization of the Commission, which shall be given within two months after the request is filed by the undertakings under subsection 1 above.

Chapter Four

MONOPOLISTIC AND DOMINANT POSITION

Monopolistic position

Art. 16. (1) Shall be monopolistic the position of an undertaking which has, by operation of law, the exclusive right to carry on a certain type of economic activity.

(2) A monopolistic position may only be conferred by a law in the cases where such a position is given to the State in accordance with §18, subsection 4 of the Constitution of the Republic of Bulgaria.

(3) Any other conferral of a monopolistic position shall be void.

Dominant position

Art. 17. (1) Shall be dominant the position of an undertaking which, in view of its market share, financial resources, possibilities for access to the market, level of technology and economic relations with other undertakings may hinder competition in the relevant market, since it is independent of its competitors, suppliers or purchasers.

(2) An undertaking shall be considered to have a dominant position where it has a market share higher than 35 per cent in the relevant market, unless the conditions under subsection 1 are not satisfied.

Prohibition to abuse monopolistic or dominant position

Art. 18. Shall be prohibited the actions of undertakings having a monopolistic or dominant position which have as their object or effect the prevention, restriction or distortion of competition, such as:

1. direct or indirect imposition of unjustified purchase or selling prices or other unfair trading conditions;
2. limiting the production, trade and technical development to the prejudice of consumers, including through the creation of a shortage of goods via their keeping, destruction, damaging or unjustified directing to processing;
3. application of dissimilar conditions to the same type of contracts in respect of certain partners, thereby placing them at a competitive disadvantage;
4. making the conclusion of contracts subject to acceptance by the other party of supplementary obligations or to the conclusion of supplementary contracts which, by their nature or according to commercial usage, are not connected with the subject of the main contract or with its performance;
5. use of economic coercion resulting into the transformation, merger, fusion, division, detaching and winding up of other undertakings, or in view of the unjustified termination of long-established business relations.

Chapter Five

STATE INTERVENTION

Determination of prices

Art. 19. Where the prohibition under §18, subsection 1 is violated by undertakings having a monopolistic position, the Council of Ministers may, on a proposal from the Commission, establish minimum, fixed or threshold prices for a given period of time which shall be binding on the defaulting undertaking.

State aids

Art. 20. (1) Shall be a State aid the aid granted by the State or through State resources in any form whatsoever which distorts or might distort competition by putting in a more favourable position certain undertakings or the production of certain goods, or the provision of certain services.

(2) State authorities and institutions which grant State aids and thereby affect or might affect the trade relations between the Republic of Bulgaria and the countries with which it has a State aids regime established by virtue of a treaty, shall be obliged to notify the Commission in advance of the corresponding project for State aids, on the admissibility of which the Commission shall pronounce.

(3) The obligation for notification under subsection 2 shall not apply to aids:

1. having a social character and granted to individual consumers regardless of the origin of the goods or services;
2. for making good the damage caused by natural disasters or other exceptional circumstances.

(4) The Commission may consider admissible the aids:

1. designed to accelerate the economic development of areas where the standard of living is low or the rate of unemployment exceeds the average level for the country;
2. designed to assist the economic development of certain economic activities or certain areas, where the conditions of commercial turnover are not changed contrary to the common interest of the parties;
3. which assist the execution of a project having a significant economic interest to the parties or the overcoming of serious difficulties in the economy of the Republic of Bulgaria;
4. which assist the conservation of cultural and historical heritage, where those aids do not affect trading conditions and competition to an extent that is contrary to the mutual interests of the parties;
5. determined with the consent of the countries with which the Republic of Bulgaria has established a regime for monitoring of State aids.

(5) Where the Commission establishes that the project or the State aid granted are incompatible with the conditions under subsections 2 to 4 above and fall outside the scope of admissible exceptions, it shall propose to the corresponding authority or institution to reverse the project within a prescribed time-limit or shall request that the aid be reimbursed. In such a case the Commission may also propose that only the amounts or the conditions for granting the aid be modified, where this is sufficient to prevent the restriction and to restore effective competition.

Chapter Six

CONCENTRATION OF ECONOMIC ACTIVITIES

Definition

Art. 21. (1) There shall be a concentration of economic of activities:

1. in case of merger or fusion of two or more autonomous undertakings, or

2. where one or several persons already controlling one or more undertakings acquire by purchase of securities, stakes or property, by contract or by any other means, direct or indirect control of one or more undertakings or parts there of.

(2) Control for the purposes of subsection 1, item 2 shall be constituted by the acquisition of rights, conclusion of contracts or other means which, separately or jointly, and having regard to the existing factual circumstances and the applicable law, confer a possibility of exercising a decisive influence on a given undertaking through:

1. the acquisition of ownership or right to use in respect of all or part of the property of the undertaking;

2. the acquisition of rights, including on the grounds of a contract, which confer a possibility for a decisive influence on the composition, voting or decisions of the bodies of the undertaking.

Joint venture

Art. 22. Shall also be considered a concentration within the meaning of §21 the creation of a joint venture which performs on a lasting basis all functions of an autonomous economic entity, where this does not give rise to co-ordination of the competitive behaviour of the participating undertakings amongst themselves or between them and the joint venture.

Exceptions

Art. 23. Shall not be considered to be concentrations the cases where:

1. banks and non-banking financial institutions or insurance companies, the activities of which include transactions in securities for their account or for the account of others, hold on a temporary basis securities of a given undertaking with the purpose to resell them, but only provided that:

a) they do not exercise the voting rights in respect of those securities in order to influence the competitive behaviour of the undertaking, or

b) they exercise their voting rights only in order to prepare the transfer of the securities, which should be effected within one year as from their acquisition;

2. Control is acquired by a person which, according to the legislation in force, performs certain functions relating to the liquidation of the undertaking or to its adjudication in insolvency;

3. the operations under §21, subsection 2 are carried out by financial holding companies but only where the control acquired by the holding company is exercised only to maintain the full value of the capital invested and not to determine directly or indirectly the competitive behaviour of the undertakings in which the holding company participates.

Obligation for prior notification

Art. 24. (1) The undertakings shall be obliged to notify in advance the Commission of their intention to carry out a concentration under §21, where:

1. the aggregate market share of the goods or services, to which the concentration relates, exceeds 20 per cent;
2. the aggregate turnover of the participants in the concentration for the previous year exceeds 15 billion Levs.

(2) Where the concentration consists in the acquisition of control of parts of one or more undertakings, whether or not those parts are autonomous legal entities, shall only be taken into consideration the turnover of that part which is the subject of control.

(3) In case of concentration of banks and non-banking financial institutions the assets on their balance sheet shall be taken into consideration, and for insurance undertakings - the total sum of insurance premiums (contributions).

Obligation of State or local authorities to notify

Art. 25. Where the authorities of the central executive power or of local self- government merge their undertakings, in the cases under §24, subsection 1, those authorities shall be obliged to submit a notification to the Commission prior to the issuance of the relevant act.

Contents of notification

Art. 26. (1) The notification under §24 shall contain data relating to:

1. the undertakings participating in the concentration;
2. the nature and the legal form of the concentration;
3. the type of goods and services covered by the concentration;
4. the undertakings in respect of which the participants in the concentration exercise control within the meaning of §21, subsection 2;
5. the aggregate market share and the aggregate turnover of the undertakings participating in the concentration;
6. the main competitors, suppliers and purchasers.

(2) The notification from the undertakings under subsection 1 shall also contain a request to the Commission to authorize the concentration.

Appraisal of concentration

Art. 27. (1) Within one month after the receipt of the notification the Commission shall make an appraisal of the concentration while taking into account circumstances such as: the position of the undertakings in the relevant market prior to the concentration and after it, their economic and financial power, the access to supplies of and markets for the relevant goods and services, the legal or other barriers to enter the markets.

(2) On the basis of the appraisal the Commission shall issue a decision whereby it shall:

1. declare that the concentration falls outside the scope of §24;
2. authorize the concentration;
3. start a study under §29.

(3) Where, during the study, data are established which reveal that the concentration for which authorization is sought seriously affects or might affect the interests of trading parties or consumers, the Commission may order by a decision the immediate cessation or modification of the operations relating to the concentration. The decision shall not be subject to appeal.

Authorization for concentration

Art. 28. (1) The Commission shall authorize the concentration where the latter does not result in the creation or strengthening of a dominant position which would significantly impede effective competition in the relevant market. Authorization may also be given under the condition that certain requirements should be satisfied.

(2) The Commission may authorize a concentration which, though creating or strengthening a dominant position, is aimed at modernising the production or the economy as a whole, improvement of the market structures, attraction of investments, increasing the competitiveness on external markets, creation of new jobs, better satisfying the interests of consumers, and on the whole overrides the negative impact on competition in the relevant market.

(3) In its authorizations under subsections 1 and 2 the Commission may also put additional conditions which guarantee the preservation of effective competition or the general positive impact on the market.

Decision for study

Art. 29. (1) The Commission shall decide to launch a study where the concentration falls within the scope of §21 and gives rise to serious doubts that its carrying out would result in the creation or strengthening of an existing dominant position, and that effective competition in the relevant market would be prevented, restricted or distorted.

(2) The decision under subsection 1 shall be published in the State Gazette.

(3) Within 3 months after the publication the Commission shall complete the study and pronounce a decision.

(4) Until the Commission pronounces its decision under §54 all operations relating to the envisaged concentration shall be prohibited.

Chapter Seven

UNFAIR COMPETITION

Definition

Art. 30. (1) Shall constitute unfair competition any act or inaction in the course of carrying on economic activities which contravenes good-faith commercial usage and impairs or might impair the interests of competitors in their relations amongst themselves or in their relations with consumers.

(2) Unfair competition shall be prohibited.

Damaging the repute of competitors

Art. 31. (1) It shall be prohibited to damage the repute of and confidence in competitors, and of the goods and services offered by them by stating or disseminating untrue data, or by misrepresenting facts.

(2) It shall be prohibited to ascribe, by means of advertising or in any other manner, non-existing qualities to goods or services in comparison to the goods or services of competitors, and to ascribe non-existing defects to the goods or services of competitors.

Misleading

Art. 32. (1) It shall be prohibited to conceal or disguise material defects or dangerous characteristics of the goods or services offered.

(2) It shall be prohibited to mislead in relation to material characteristics or the way of utilization of the goods by means of stating untrue data or misrepresenting facts.

(3) It shall be prohibited to advertise goods or services which are not available to satisfy consumer demand or which are of insufficient quantity.
